

SEMINAR FOR PROFESSIONALS

UNDERUSED PLANTS IN THE LANDSCAPE

MORRIS ARBORETUM, PHILA., PA
FEBRUARY 19 • 8:15 - 3:00

Achieving the Horticultural Edge for Competitive Times

A superior knowledge of plant material can be of invaluable importance in securing choice landscape projects.

In this seminar an outstanding group of horticulturists and designers will present an in depth discussion of both woody and perennial plant material, and their effective combinations in the landscape.
